IS GRUNHUT DEAD?

His Brother and Sister Protest the Probate of His Will.

Louis Grunhut and Mary Bullons brother and sister of the late Dr. Bern-Brooklyn, filed papers with Surrogate Abbott to-day protesting against the probate of the doctor's will.

The papers filed with the will state that Dr. Grunhut died on Sept. 22 last, his widow, Jennie Grunhut, received $25,000 and two houses. The balance of the estate was bequeathed to the Hebrew Orphan Asylum of New York City and several other charities.

In the list of liable heirs filed with the Surrogate the names of the petitioners do not appear. They claim that they have no knowledge of the doctor's death, and they do not believe he is dead. They also state that the woman designated as his widow is not his widow; that in the event of his having made the will, which 'hey doubt, Dr. Grunhut was of unsound mind.

As soon as Counsellor Stephen M. Hoye had the findings signed he hurried to the County Clerk's office and had them entered.

Lawyer Jenkins then started for the offices of the "L" road to serve the order of Judge Gaynor. He will also serve it upon the attorneys of the road, Hoadly Lauterbach & Johnson, in New York.

The money must be paid at once of the injunction goes into effect immediately. Mr. Hoye, as counsel for Mrs. Phoebe Kissam, to-day secured a judgment of $2,000 for damages done to Mrs. Kissam's property, and 480 Myrtle avenue, by the Brooklyn Elevated Railroad.

Mr. Hoye says these are the largest damages ever obtained against the "L" road for Myrtle avenue property. An injunction similar to the Beck case goes with the judgment. It will be served as soon as the papers can be prepared.
